

Thank you for staying at home.

The Boss of Ireland says thank you for staying at home.

He said now we can go to shops, libraries and lots of other places.

Everyone must keep social distancing and washing hands.

What is open now in Ireland

Now you can travel anywhere in Ireland.

The government wants people to work from home if they can.

Pubs that serve food can open.

There will be no bar service.

Cafes and restaurants can open.

Hotels can open.

Museums and art galleries can open.

Places that people pray will open, like churches and mosques.

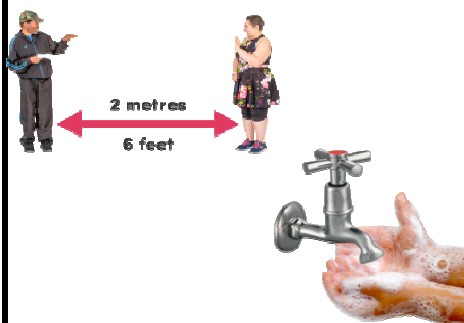

Hairdressers and barbers can open.

Swimming pools can open

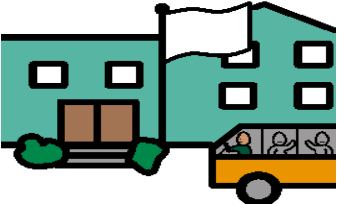

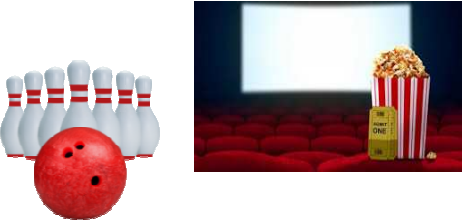

Sports and team leagues can play.

Everyone has to keep social distancing and wash hands.

What will open on 20th July in Ireland?

	Small weddings and christenings are allowed.
	Hospital visits can restart.
	People can go to stadiums to watch matches.
	Some schools and universities will open.
	Theatres, cinemas, bingo halls and bowling alleys can open.

Only go on the Luas and buses when it is not busy.

Everyone has to keep social distancing and wash hands.

If you can you should wear a mask if you are outside your home.

Thank you to Francis Coady for his valuable contribution to making this information accessible

St Michael's House Speech and Language Therapy Department