Complaints and Compliments Policy

This Policy is divided into 2 sections:

Section 1 - Complaints

Section 2 - Compliments

SECTION 1 - COMPLAINTS

'A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction'

At St. Michael's House we want to hear from our service users, their families and advocates on a very regular basis. We want people to tell us when we get things wrong just as we want to know what we are getting right.

All complaints are viewed as an opportunity to continuously improve the quality of the services that we provide, and to learn lessons in order to prevent similar occurrences in the future. We take all complaints seriously whether verbal or written.

We commit to handle complaints appropriately and sensitively in accordance with this policy. We also commit to safe-guarding the rights and dignity of both the people we support and our staff in the implementation of this policy (and associated supporting documents). We know that it is difficult for people to make complaints and we assure people that they will not be in any way disadvantaged by making a complaint.

Most complaints can be resolved at the first point of contact when both parties genuinely engage in trying to resolve the issues which led to the complaint. At St. Michael's House we support our staff to be confident in their ability and we give them authority to deal with complaints in the best interest of our service users.

People who make a complaint want the following:-

- An acknowledgement that something happened (did not happen).
- An explanation as to why it happened.
- An apology.
- An assurance that everything will be done to ensure that in as far as we can possibly predict this will not happen again to another service user.

Health and Social Care can however be both complex and complicated and sometimes complaints cannot be dealt with as early and as effectively as we would like. Therefore it is appropriate that we have a policy and procedures which enable both our staff and the people who use our services to have complex and serious issues reviewed appropriately and effectively. Sometimes this can take a little longer, but service users and their families must always receive information and updates as the process continues. We will uphold the principles of natural justice and fair procedures in handling complaints about our services.

This policy sets out the attitudes and the processes which we believe will lead to best outcomes for all.

Remember- Complaints relating to both clinical and administrative / management matters are covered under this policy except the small proportion of issues which relate solely to clinical judgement, HR policy and process, matters relating to Social Welfare etc. (see Appendix 1 for details of exclusions)

Principles of good complaints handling

1. Open Disclosure
2. Commitment to resolution
3. Accessibility
4. Responsiveness
5. Transparency and Accountability
6. Privacy and Confidentiality
7. Quality Improvement

The purpose of this policy is:-

To ensure that the service users we support, and those acting on their behalf, are enabled to make a complaint when they are not satisfied with the service provided by St. Michael's House

And

To ensure that staff are empowered to act promptly and with the authority to resolve issues, manage complaints effectively and demonstrate to the people we support and their advocates that their complaint will receive the open, honest and effective response it deserves.

DEFINITION OF A COMPLAINT

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction which requires a prompt and appropriate response.

It is important to be aware that people have a statutory right to make a complaint and to have it dealt with in accordance with fair procedures. Complaints about Health and Social Care are deemed to be of such importance that there is a section of the Health Act 2004 (Part 9) devoted to complaints. (Appendix 2)

In the Health Act a 'complaint means ;'A complaint made about any action that, it is claimed, does not accord with fair or sound administrative practice, and adversely affects the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the complaint is made.'

An 'Action' is defined as 'Anything done or omitted to be done in connection with the provision of a health or personal social service that is the subject of an arrangement under Section 38 of the Act, or a service in respect of which assistance is given under Section 39 of the Act.'

A Complainant is defined as 'any person who is or was provided with a health or personal social service by the organisation or who is seeking or has sought provision of such service.'

WHO CAN MAKE A COMPLAINT

Any person who is being or was provided with a health or personal social service by St. Michael's House or who is seeking or has sought provision of such service, may make a complaint.

ADVOCACY

Everyone who wishes to make a complaint has the right to appoint an advocate. If a person is entitled to make a complaint but is unable to do so because of age, illness or disability, the complaint may be made on that person's behalf by:-

- a) a spouse, a parent, a close relative or a carer.
- b) a guardian or a person acting in loco parentis.
- c) a legal representative.
- d) a personal advocate
- e) any person who, by law or by appointment of a court, has the care of the affairs of that person.
- f) any other person with the consent of the person.
- g) any other person who is appointed as prescribed in the regulations under Part 9 of the Health Act (2004)

The National Advocacy Service established in March 2011 provides representative advocacy for people with disabilities between the ages of 18 and 65. It provides an independent, confidential and free representative advocacy service that works exclusively for the person using the service.

The contact number for the National Advocacy Service (NAS) is Telephone No: 075 103000 (10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday).

The Service Manager will be available to service users to ensure all complaints are properly responded to and records are maintained. If the Service Manager is acting as the Complaints Officer or the complaint is about them the Registered Provider will nominate an alternative person to this role.

COMPLAINTS OFFICERS

Although all staff are required to deal with complaints the CEO formally delegates Complaints Officers to deal with those complaints that have not been resolved at the first point of contact (they may often be the first point of contact). Complaints Officers must receive appropriate training and support to carry out this duty in an independent manner as required by the Health Act (2004). Complaints Officers will normally be the Person in Charge (PIC) of the centre or the Head of Department in the case of Clinical Specialties and Administration Functions.

When the Complaints Officer is informed of a complaint by a member of staff he/she must proceed with the most appropriate course of action to resolve the complaint. This may involve assisting the staff member with resolution.

HOW CAN A COMPLAINT BE MADE?

A complaint can be made using whatever method is most appropriate and accessible for the service user or his/her family e.g. verbal, written, using gesture and sign or through an aided device.

If the person themselves cannot write, family members, staff or an advocate will write the complaint with them and where possible staff must make information accessible to the person so that the person, to the best of their ability, knows and understands what is being recorded.

N.B. If the issue involves possible abuse of a service user, it will be addressed through the St. Michael's House Safe Guarding Policies.

All staff working in St. Michael's House are responsible for complying with this policy i.e. the policy applies to frontline, clinical and administrative staff at all levels in the organisation.

There are four stages in the process for the management of complaints. It is the aim of St. Michael's House that most complaints will be resolved at Stage 1 and that only those complex complaints resulting in serious outcomes for service users will be required to be escalated for further review and resolution.

The stages of the St. Michael's House process are as follows;

Stage 1(a) - Local resolution of verbal or non-verbal* complaints at point of contact (informal).

Stage 1(b) - Local resolution of verbal or non-verbal complaints by Complaints Officer (i.e. PIC, Head of Department)

Stage 2(a) - Preliminary review of written complaints and/or unresolved verbal or non-verbal complaints by Complaints Officer

Stage 2(b) - Full review of written complaints and/or unresolved verbal or non-verbal complaints by Complaints Officer or Director of Services.

Stage 2(c) - Internal Review through CEO's Office.

Stage 3 - Review by the Health Service Executive (HSE).

Stage 4 - Independent Review (Ombudsman/Ombudsman for Children).

*Non-verbal individuals

See Appendix 3 for roles and responsibilities of staff.

STAGE 1(a) Local resolution of verbal or non-verbal complaints at point of contact.

All staff have a responsibility to deal with complaints constructively and honestly. Staff have a duty, where possible, to do everything possible to resolve the issues which led to the complaint. Complaints which are approached with sensitivity, openness and honesty as close to the time when first made, are resolved more satisfactorily than those which are left for a prolonged period. It is essential that appropriate communication behaviours and processes are clearly understood by staff and adhered to at all stages of the process.

Actions required at Stage 1(a) of the Complaints Management Process

- The staff member who receives the complaint must listen carefully and with empathy to the person making the complaint.
- The staff member should not ask the caller to ring someone else with their concern.
- He /she should apologise for what has led to the complaint and assure the complainant that everything possible will be done to resolve the issues raised and if they cannot be resolved that an open and honest explanation will be given.
- He/she must record the details of the complaint on a Managing an Expression of Dissatisfaction/ Complaint Form (Appendix 4)
- He/she must resolve what can be resolved and explain to the complainant what will be required to be done to resolve outstanding issues e.g. escalation of the complaint to the Complaints Officer for preliminary review.
- He/she must inform and /or refer the complaint to the Complaints Officer. If there are outstanding issues the complaint must be referred and if the complaint is resolved the Complaints Officer must be informed and receive a report. (If the Complaints Officer is the subject of the complaint it must be referred to the Service Manager/Line Manager.)

Remember- All complaints - clinical and non-clinical, informal and formal - must be recorded to ensure organisational learning.

STAGE 1(b) Local resolution of verbal or non-verbal complaints by the Complaints Officer

The Complaints Officer either in assisting a staff member or taking over the complaint may often be able to resolve the complaint at the first stage in the process.

Stage 1 of the complaints management process is the local resolution of complaints at the point of contact or nearest point locally. The Complaints Officer must be made aware of all complaints (clinical and non-clinical) and must receive a report on each complaint. In addition the Complaints Officer is required to keep the Service Manager /Line Manager informed of all complaints pertaining to the Service for which he/she is responsible. Quarterly returns must be made to the Administration Manager.

STAGE 2(a) – Preliminary review of written complaints and unresolved verbal or non-verbal complaints by Complaints Officer

This stage requires the Complaints Officer to carry a preliminary review of the complaint. The Complaints Officer must act promptly and ensure that both the person who referred the complaint and the person who made the complaint are kept informed of any actions taken. The Complaints Officer will make a decision as to whether the complaint requires further review at this point.

At this point the Complaints Office will be required to decide if this issue should be dealt with under another Policy eg: The Policy and Procedures for the Protection of Children from Abuse and Neglect, Policy and Procedures for the Protection of Adults from Abuse and Neglect, Trust in Care or other HR Policies.

If a Service User has suffered harm the Complaints Officer should also pay attention to the St. Michael's House Incident Management Policy (in draft).

Actions to be taken by the Complaints Officer when a complaint is referred;
Respond to both the staff member and the person who made the complaint (as soon as possible and within 5 days) and notify Service Manager.

STAGE 2(b) –Full review of written complaints by Complaints Officer or Director of Services (or nominated person)

- Review the complaint and prepare a report to include decisions and recommendations. This report should also include next steps for the person making the complaint if he/she is not satisfied. The report of the Complaints Officer must be given to the person who made the complaint and to the Director of Services.
- Prepare an appropriate communications plan and set clear timelines in line with the legislation. (Reviews to be completed within 30 working days. When this is not possible keep the person who made the complaint informed of progress at least every 20 working days with reasons given for the delay).

Or

- Escalate the complaint to the Director of Services for review.

If the issue(s) cannot be resolved locally due to the complexity and/or seriousness of the complaint outcome it must be referred by the Service Manager to the relevant Director of Services. The Director of Services may delegate a named person(s) to review the complaint. The type of review used at this point will be decided based on the seriousness of the issue and the likelihood of a recurrence of such an issue in the service (e.g. a safety incident may require a systems analysis review). The person making the complaint must be informed of his/her right to an internal /external review as per this Policy.

Note: It is advisable that in the case of certain complex complaints a Complaints Officer from another part of the service is appointed to deal with a complaint. This may occur if there is a perceived conflict of interest when the PIC or Head of Department is required to make decisions which are the subject of the complaint.

Remember- A Complaints/Review Officer shall not make a finding or criticism in his or her proposed report, adverse to a person, without first having afforded the person concerned the opportunity to consider the finding or criticism and to make representations, which shall be considered, in relation to it.

The Complaints Officer /PIC/ Head of Department is also required to;

- Ensure that all staff are aware of this policy and have been provided with training and support to deal effectively with complaints including recording and escalation.
- Provide oversight of the local register of complaints and intervene when appropriate.
- Review local complaints if not resolved at the first point of contact.

- Record and report all complaints to the Service Manager who will report to the Administration Manager quarterly and Director of Services as necessary.
- Implement local recommendations

STAGE 2 (c) - Internal Review

The CEO has appointed a Review Officer in the office of the CEO.

This affords service users, families and advocates an opportunity to refer their complaint for review if not satisfied with the outcome of the review of the complaint by the Complaints Officer/ Director of Services.

The Review Officer will review the process, the decision and the recommendations in the review and has the authority to

1. Uphold the decisions and recommendations
or
2. Amend the decision and recommendations
or
3. Recommend another review

STAGE 3 - H.S.E Review

The person who made the complaint may seek a review of the outcome of the review by a HSE Review Officer when Stage 2 of the process has been completed. This request must be made within 30 working days of the date on which the internal review of the final report was signed and dated. When a request for a review is received beyond that period, the HSE Head Advocacy or Designated Officer may extend the time limit for requesting a review if he/she determines that special circumstances make it appropriate to do so. The HSE have designated authority to appoint Review Officers as per the Health Act 2004 (Complaints) Regulations 2006, and all requests for a HSE Complaints Review should be forwarded to:-

Head of Advocacy Services,
H.S.E.
Oak House,
Millennium Park,
Naas,
Co. Kildare.

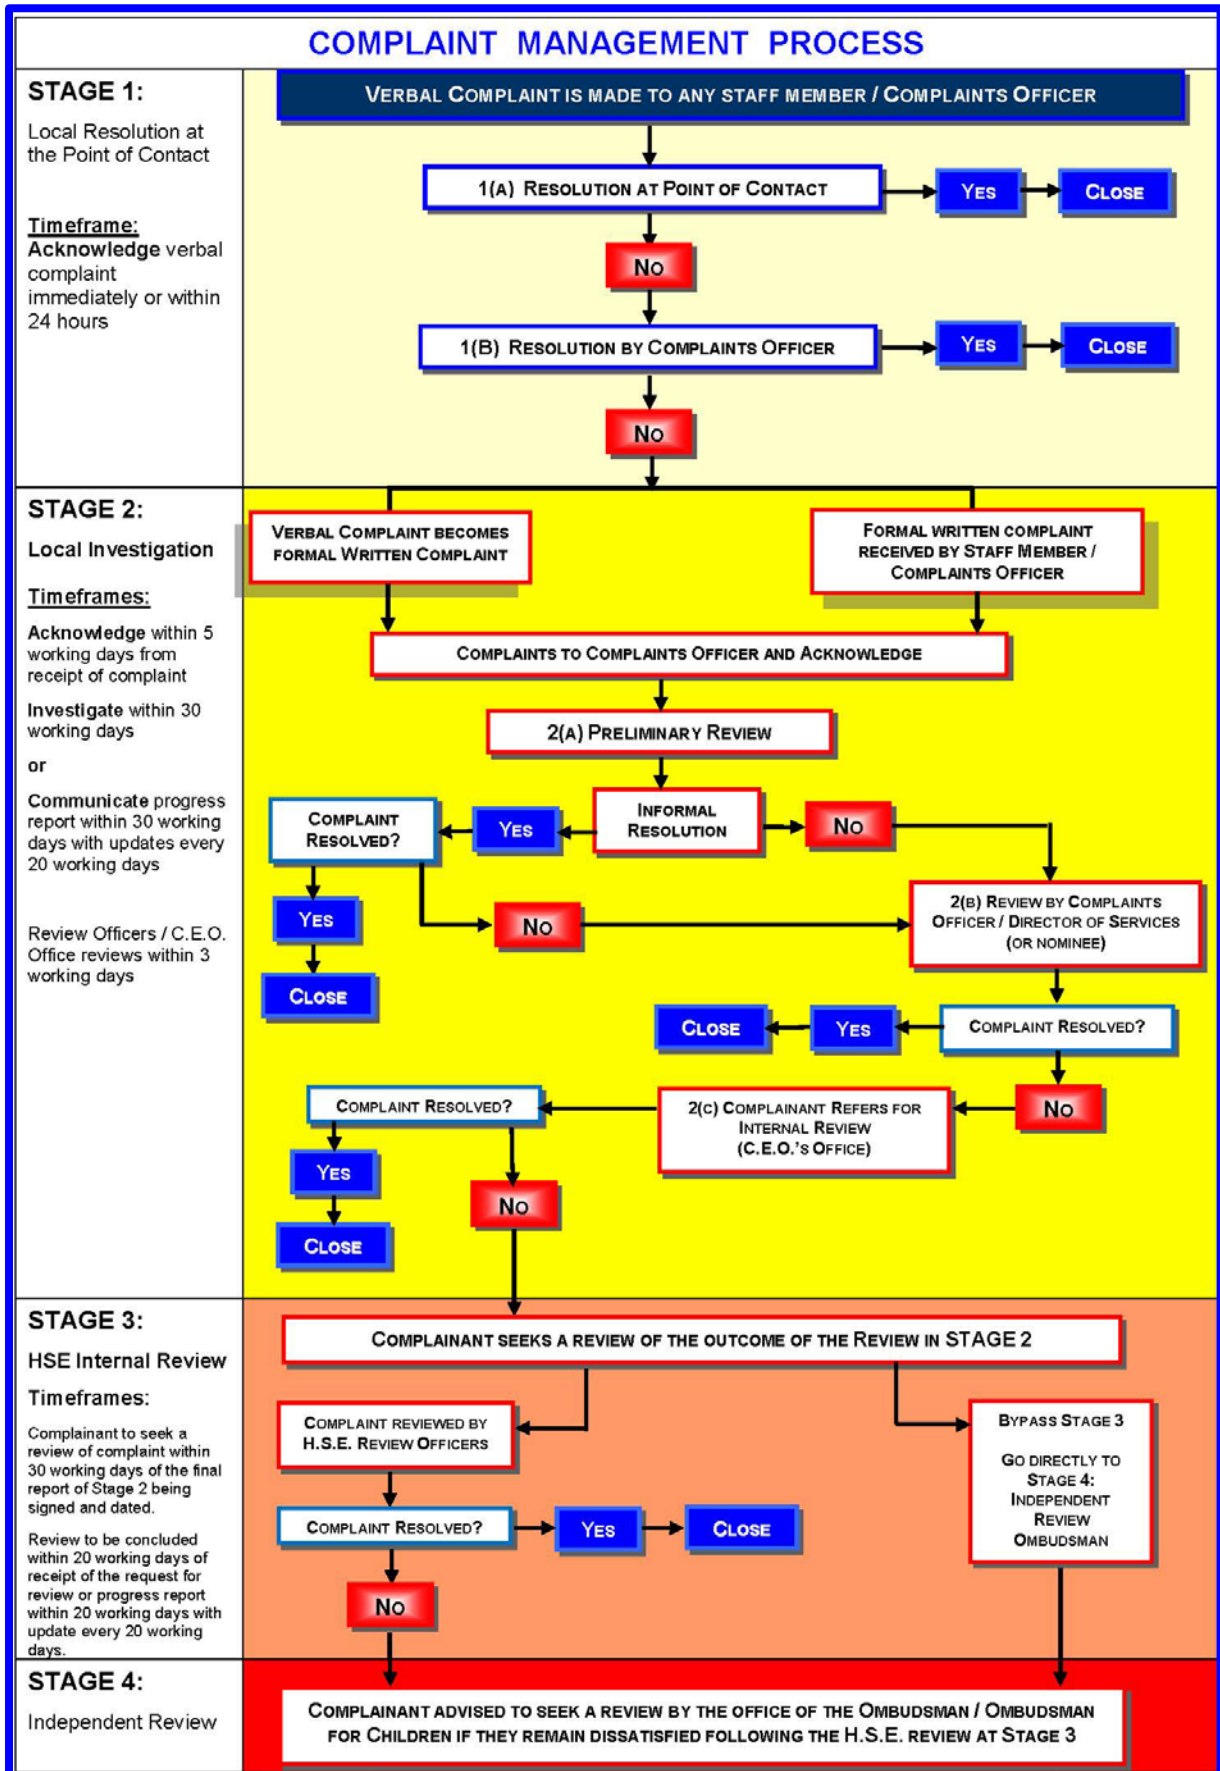

STAGE 4 - Ombudsman

The person who has made a complaint may refer the complaint to the Ombudsman or Ombudsman for Children if not satisfied with the outcome of the review by St. Michael's House and/or the HSE.

Nothing in the Health Act prohibits or prevents any person who is dissatisfied with a recommendation made or step taken in response to a complaint from referring the complaint to the Ombudsman or the Ombudsman for Children.

WITHDRAWAL OF A COMPLAINT

The person who made the complaint may, at any time, withdraw a complaint made and, on advice of such withdrawal, the Complaints Officer may cease to review the complaint. However, where the Complaints Officer has reasonable grounds for believing that public interest would be best served by the continuation of the review, he/she must refer the matter to the Director of Services.

ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS

All anonymous complaints should be documented and brought to the attention of the Complaints Officer. Anonymous complaints are not normally reviewed as there is always a chance that they are vexatious or malicious and the anonymity of the person making the complaint does not enable the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness to be upheld. However the Complaints Officer should assure themselves that the systems in place are robust and the welfare of service users is not at risk.

VEXATIOUS OR MALICIOUS COMPLAINTS

If found to be frivolous or vexatious, St. Michael's House will not pursue the complaint any further and there will be no record of the complaint in the file of the staff member/service about which the complaint was made.

Before the complaint is deemed vexatious the Complaints Officer must bring it to the attention of the Director of Services.

REDRESS

Sometimes redress is considered appropriate. St. Michael's House may offer forms of redress or responses that are appropriate and reasonable where it has been established that a measurable loss, detriment or disadvantage was suffered or sustained by the claimant personally. Redress should only be offered after consultation with the Director of Services.

A Complaints Officer following the review of a complaint may not make a recommendation of which the implementation would require or cause:-

- St. Michael's House to make a material amendment to its approved service plan, or
- St. Michael's House to make a material amendment to an arrangement under Section 38.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Complainants must be assured that their complaint and their personal details will be treated in confidence to the greatest extent possible consistent with public interest and the right to privacy. Complainant's information required for reporting and statistical purposes will be anonymised and all identifiable data will be removed.

ORGANISATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

We learn from complaints that are documented and reported. This organisational learning begins with evaluating the incident which caused the complaint through to embedding the necessary changes into practice.

St. Michael's House is committed to using information from complaints to make improvements to the organisation and will identify and communicate such improvements to Service Users, their families and staff.

Complaints must be linked to quality improvement by identifying complaints data as an integral part of business practice in understanding customer needs and improving quality overall.

Complaints Officers will collate complaints management information and data and will provide reports to the Administration Manager who will report quarterly to the CEO's office. This information is then shared with the Executive Management Team by the CEO's Office and reported to the St. Michael's House Board of Directors and the HSE. This information will be used by St. Michael's House for educational and improvement purposes.

Recommendations made in the review reports and approved by the Director of Services are tracked and monitored by the Executive Management Team.

Employing incident review strategies focuses on reducing systems failure and managing for its inevitability, whether caused by technology, human error or procedurally.

Complaints data can become part of the whole data system for quality and safety management. We can feed information about errors, mistakes, system failures and near misses into processes that can best act upon it.

The quality improvement approach promotes safety and quality improvement by recognising the systemic nature of most adverse events and by open communication with service users when things go wrong. Promoting a quality improvement approach requires information about complaints to be integrated into other adverse event reporting and claims analysis. It also requires the creation of an organisational culture and associated systems that ensure that adverse events and consumer feedback generate opportunities for learning.

We will actively encourage and promote service user feedback and will link with service users and their families to ensure that the complaint handling processes are effective, are being communicated and are achieving outcomes that are satisfactory to the service users and their families.

SECTION 2 - COMPLIMENTS

At St. Michael's House we believe that we deliver high quality services to our service users. In Part 1 we have outlined the importance of dealing with complaints about our services. It is also important to recognise when we do things well and to acknowledge the high quality services delivered by our staff.

Many people acknowledge verbally and in writing the good services received by them or a member of their family. These expressions of satisfaction must also be recorded, collated and analysed.

ORGANISATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

We learn from compliments that are documented and reported. This organisational learning begins with evaluating the care which initiated the compliment through to embedding good practice into services. See Appendix 5 – Compliments & Comments Form.

St. Michael's House is committed to using information from complaints and compliments to make improvements to the organisation and will identify and communicate such improvements to service users, their families and staff.

Complaints Officers will collate compliments management information and data, will provide quarterly reports to the Executive Management Team for their respective area and will feed positive information back in to the organisation for educational and improvement purposes and to ensure that staff know that they are valued by the people they serve.

The quality improvement approach promotes safety and quality improvement by recognising the systemic nature of most adverse events and by open communication with service users when things go wrong. Promoting a quality improvement approach also requires information about good practice to be integrated into quality information systems. It also requires the creation of an organisational culture and associated systems that ensure that consumer feedback generate opportunities for learning.

We will actively encourage and promote service user feedback and will link with service users and their families on a regular basis to ensure that our feedback handling processes are effective, are being communicated and are achieving outcomes that are satisfactory to the service users and their families.
