

Checking my temperature

Sometimes when you are sick, you can have a temperature.

A temperature is when you feel very hot.

Staff will check your temperature to see if you are sick.

This is what staff will use to check your temperature.

Staff will hold it in front of your face.

You will hear a beep when it is over.

Staff will write down what your temperature is.